any kind S. R. CRISPIN & CO. can suit you. Call and see for yourself.

If it keeps wet much longer farmers won't get a chance to lay by their corn just as many of them would like.

Mr. G. A. Hughes says 8 inches of rain fell in this place on Tuesday night, in about 2 hours.

In time of peace prepare for war.

When the weather gets hot buy your next winter's coal.

A contemporary warns its readers against buying spring chickens with their toes frozen off.

Lightning struck a small tree down by the Depot on Tuesday evening, which caused some commotion.

Sunday evening was a pleasant time to take a ride, and all the lively rigs of this city were on the road, with a demand for nearly as many more.

No one can think clearly when suffering from Headache. Dr. Bull's Bal-more Pills will banish this disagreeable ailment. Price 25 cents.

Speaking evil of your neighbor does not build you up much in the estimation of people whose good opinion is worth having.

neighborhood and the parents should be forced to keep it. Bull's Baby Syrup helps. Price 25 cents.

Askes molted, with kerosene oil is recommended for keeping striped bugs from cucumber, melon and squash plants.

A very fine lot of fat hogs belonging to Messrs. Craven & Mason, were driven through town yesterday on their way to the depot to be shipped.

Hamburg Edgings, both White and Colored, a very full line at 14-f S. R. CRISPIN & CO.

The rain on Tuesday night was rather destructive on water ways in this section of the country, and fences too near small streams also suffered greatly.

The noise of the wheat threshing will soon be heard in the land—separating the golden grain from the straw and chaff.

When you want picnic bills or any other kind of printing call at this office.

First-class work and low prices is our motto.

Merchants who have not filed their statements with the County Clerk, had better not delay the matter much longer.

When you come to the big 4th of JULY boom, in Richmond, stop at the office and settle back rations on subscription.

We are in receipt of a well written communication on "Education," from our correspondent "Uno," which will appear in the paper next week. We are glad to receive such communications.

THE OFFICE OF THE PROBATE JUDGE and the office of the County Clerk, in the Court House, were completely deluged with water on Tuesday night last, which resulted in great damage to books and papers. It appears the committee of 21 had a private meeting in the Circuit Court room on Tuesday evening, and when they went away left the windows up on the North and West sides of the building. The wind blew a few hand-reds of water in. In at those windows, and it ran through into the office, named below. The County Clerk had just about completed the tax books for this year, but they are now so damaged that they may have to be sent to St.

Louis and rebound. Other papers and books in the County Clerk's office were greatly damaged. In Judge Hughes' office, all the books and papers about his table were either ruined or greatly damaged. Persons using the Court Room above should be very careful to close the windows when they leave, to prevent damage to the building or public documents contained therein.

An extended ride in the country,

North and North-East of town, on Sunday last, leaves us in doubt as to what we will do with all the corn that will be raised in this county, this year, if it should remain seasonable for six weeks longer. We never saw a better prospect. Wheat is nearly all harvested, and turning out much better than farmers expected. The grain is plump and the heads well filled. During the dry weather in May, doleful accounts reached us as the wheat prospect, but the late rains seem to have made a wonderful change. Oats in many fields are looking well and will make a full yield of grain, though the straw will be short. From reports, we had been led to believe that meadows would hardly pay to cut, but a personal examination of quite a number, convinces us that this report is without foundation. The yield of hay will be fully up to the average of the last ten years. Taking it all in all, the farmers have great ground for rejoicing, as the crop prospects are excellent just now.

The Business Association of this city is circulating, in Ray county, a large number of handbills, advertising the business advantages of this city, and advising Ray county people who come here to trade free ferrisage.—Lexington Intelligencer.

The above is published for the information of business men in Richmond, and on the South-East of Ray county generally. Hardin, Junction and Camden merchants should be able to offer such inducements as to prevent trade from crossing the river, and Richmond should stir up and offer special inducements for trade to come to this place.

Our merchants can and should offer
